

While you're visiting our website, you can go to our Elder Rights Handbook to learn more about common elder law issues, or check out the HelpMELaw library to search for information on a broader range of legal topics. In addition, our Web Links can be your portal to information on the internet on a wide range of topics that are important to older people.

If you can't find what you're looking for on our website, you can call the Helpline and talk with an attorney about your questions. They can point you in the right direction or even give you an answer when you call. We also have many printed publications on a variety of topics that we can mail to you.
